

Educational Studies Minor

Students can minor in Educational Studies; however, completion of minor does not meet the requirements for teacher certification. Students must meet College of Education admission requirements.

The professional development courses that constitute the 21-hour minor include:

Prior to Entry into the College of Education: 3 hours

EDUC 20003 CI: Teaching and Learning (required course)

Prior to Entry into the College of Education, students may select from any of the following courses: 3 hours

EDUC 10433 Freshman Seminar in Education

EDUC 10544 Freshman Seminar in Education

EDUC 30013 Professional Roles and Responsibilities (CSV)

EDUC 30143 Child and Adolescent Development

After Entry into the College of Education, students may select from any of the following courses: 15 hours

EDEC 30073 Children's Literature (LT)

EDEC 30103 Intro to Early Childhood Education

EDSE 30113 Digital Literacy, Learning, and Citizenship in Education (CSV)

EDSE 50173 Development of Written Communication (WEM)

EDSP 50663 Motivating and Managing Students in the Classroom

EDUC 30123 Educational Psychology

EDUC 30603 Study of Exceptional Students

EDUC 50003 Diversity in American Education (CA)

EDUC 50023 Effective Teaching and Classroom Implementation (CA,WEM)