

TCU College of Education Research & Pedagogy Festival

Dr. Alexander and Dr. Lindo

When: Wednesday, April 18, 2018

Electronic Poster Submissions Due: Wednesday, March 28, 2018.

Student Research & Pedagogy: Student(s) are encouraged to present their scholarly and pedagogical work. Undergraduate and Graduate students will present their posters from 4 to 6 PM.

Recommended Poster Content:

- Title
- Student name(s)
- Faculty mentor(s) name(s)
- CoE Center affiliation (if applicable)
- Research questions or pedagogical project objectives
- Description (abstract)
- Methods used to answer research question(s) or to implement a novel approach
- Summary of results, including a clear, concise conclusion.
- Posters should include charts, tables, graphs, figures, images, photographs, and the like. We ask that consent of participants be obtained if photographs are used.

Poster Preparation Workshops: These workshops are highly recommended, and they will address design, communication, and technical considerations for research and pedagogy posters. The workshops will be held in Palko 223 on the following dates and times:

Tuesday, February, 20, 4-6 PM and Monday, March 5, 4-6 PM

Poster Submission & Publication Process for Festival:

1. Faculty mentor(s) supervise the research or pedagogy project, sign the Research & Pedagogy Festival Checklist, and approve research or pedagogy content. The Checklist may be found on the COE website under Student Research. The form may be submitted electronically using the form on the Student Research web page.
2. Once approved and accepted by the faculty mentor, student(s) submit the PPT file via the electronic form on the Student Research web page by Wednesday, March 28, 2018. Dr. Alexander and Dr. Lindo will review posters, and students may be asked to make changes to their poster before it is accepted.
3. Dr. Alexander and Dr. Alexander will send you the PDF file for printing, as well as instructions for printing the posters.
4. Dr. Alexander and Dr. Lindo will work with teaching assistants to set up tables and places for each poster in the Jones Student Lounge (1st floor Palko lobby). Presenting students should arrive no later than 3:45pm.
5. Note that each student can stand and present with ONE poster only. However a student may be a co-author on more than one poster if someone else is presenting other posters.

Poster Format: Posters should be formatted using the 30" x 42" template found on the Student Research web page. They will be displayed on tri-fold boards (4' x 3'). There will be no charge to students for printing the poster.
